A Note from the Author

I wrote this book as a supportive teacher. Every technique here was tested in real conditions — as a student, with real deadlines. Nothing here is theoretical.

Let us get to work.

From Panic to Plan

Exam stress comes from uncertainty. This chapter replaces panic with a structured preparation system.

Build confidence through preparation, not cramming.

1. The 21-Day Plan

Three weeks. Seven subjects or topics per week. Build mastery gradually.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

QUICK WIN

Try this today: Take one from panic to plan prompt from this chapter and use it on a real task.

2. The Confidence Metric

Rate each topic 1-5. Only 5s can be skipped. Everything below 4 gets study time.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

ACTION

Before moving to the next chapter, implement one from panic to plan technique in your current work.

Building Study Materials

AI turns your notes into every study format you need. Summaries. Flashcards. Mind maps. All from one input.

Three ways to convert one set of notes into multiple study formats.

1. Notes → Summary

'Summarize these notes. Flag what I likely misunderstood.' One prompt. Instant clarity.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

QUICK WIN

Try this today: Take one building study materials prompt from this chapter and use it on a real task.

2. Notes → Flashcards

Generate 20 flashcards. Import to Anki. Review daily. This is the single most effective study technique.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

ACTION

Before moving to the next chapter, implement one building study materials technique in your current work.

3. Notes → Mind Map

'Create a concept map for [topic]. Show connections. Highlight the most testable parts.'

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

Practice Generating

Taking practice tests is more effective than re-reading. AI generates custom tests from your notes.

Full practice exams from your own notes. Timed. Graded. Analyzed.

1. The Practice Prompt

'Create a 20-question practice exam on [topic]. Include short answers and one essay. Provide a full answer key.'

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

QUICK WIN

Try this today: Take one practice generating prompt from this chapter and use it on a real task.

2. Self-Grading

Take the test. Then paste your answers: 'Grade these responses. Be specific about what was missing.'

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

ACTION

Before moving to the next chapter, implement one practice generating technique in your current work.

3. Weak Spot Targeting

AI identifies patterns in your mistakes. Target those topics. Repeat until they become strengths.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

The Week Before

Seven specific actions across seven days. No ambiguity. Just execution.

Day 7-5: Complete all flashcards. Take one full practice exam. Day 4-2: Review missed questions. Re-read summaries. Generate new practice questions on weak spots. Day 1: Light review only. Sleep 8 hours.

1. Day 7-5

Complete all flashcards. Take one full practice exam.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

QUICK WIN

Try this today: Take one the week before prompt from this chapter and use it on a real task.

2. Day 4-2

Review missed questions. Re-read summaries. Generate new practice questions on weak spots.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

ACTION

Before moving to the next chapter, implement one the week before technique in your current work.

3. Day 1

Light review only. Sleep 8 hours. Confidence from preparation beats last-minute cramming every time.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

Exam Day

What to do in the exam hall. Written to calm nerves and maximize performance.

Time budget. Answer structure. What to do when stuck.

1. Time Budget

Divide total marks by total minutes. That is your time per mark. Stick to it.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

QUICK WIN

Try this today: Take one exam day prompt from this chapter and use it on a real task.

2. Answer Structure

Short answers: point + explanation + example. Essays: thesis + 3 arguments + counter + conclusion.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

Before moving to the next chapter, implement one exam day technique in your current work.

3. When Stuck

Move on. Answer what you know first. Return to hard questions with remaining time. Partial credit adds up.

- Start with this technique in your current course
- Practice for 15 minutes daily throughout the week
- Note what works and what does not

Quick-Reference Cheat Sheet

Print this. Stick it next to your workspace.

- 1. From Panic to Plan
- 2. Building Study Materials
- 3. Practice Generating
- 4. The Week Before
- 5. Exam Day
